484. 1. Pharmacy Assistant course for class 12th passed in Science.
2. Internet Pharmacy.

(2-26/2016-PCI)

484.1 It was directly taken up by the EC with the permission of the chair.

484.2 Dr.B.Suresh, President, PCI briefed as under -

1. The President, PCI attended the meeting at Ministry of Health & Family Welfare on 31.1.2017 as called by Shri K.L. Sharma, Joint Secretary, Health Ministry with regard to -
  - a) Discussion on internet pharmacy.
  - b) About the pharmacists shortage in the country and the need for developing programme to overcome the shortage.
2. The representatives of AIOCD, Regulatory officers and Mr.Ashish Jain, Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship were present. Shri H.G.Koshia, EC Member, PCI was also present during the discussion.
3. The AIOCD represented the matter relating to shortage of pharmacists and proposed that the people who are working in the pharmacy shops may be given short term training and be made eligible for registration as pharmacists under the Pharmacy Act, 1948.
4. The President explained that the Pharmacy Act and regulations framed thereunder have been enacted for the purpose of safe-guarding public health and ensuring that qualified and competent trained professionals under the various provisions of Act & Regulations only enter the pharmacy profession and practice the profession of pharmacy.
5. The proposal made by AIOCD is not feasible and acceptable on both the accounts as it will be violation of the spirit of the Act and the profession which is supposed to be guardian of the health care of the country.
6. The matter relating to internet pharmacy or e.pharmacy was discussed and the Council made its position clear that the dispensing of medication under the prescription of registered medical practitioner can be done only under the supervision of qualified pharmacist whatever be the delivery of mode of the filling the prescription.
7. The President also presented a status paper on the same highlighting the stand of the PCI, the threats and safeguards need to be made and lastly the practices and experiences in other countries and approaches taken by them. The document presented by the President, PCI was taken on record. (02.274/2016-PCI, S.No.35)
